AROUND THE TOWN

Mrs. West of Toronto paid a short visit to her friend, Mrs. Reitzel.

Miss Ara Weber is attending the Garbut Business College at Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Grump of Calgary were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Reitzel.

The Atlas Lumber Co. have installed a set of scales in their lumber yard for their coal trade.

Mr. George Bettger and bride of Moncton, Ont., spent part of their honeymoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Reitzel.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the Baptist church on Sunday next at 11 and 7.30. Special music. All heartily invited.

The thimble tea will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Liesemer on Wednesday, Oct. 30, from 3 to 5. Bring your own work. Silver collection.

Drs. Piper & Sandercock, the dentists, will not be at their office on Monday next as it is Thanksgiving Day, but will be at their office on Tuesday and Wednesday.

A Thanksgiving programme consisting of special singing and addresses will be rendered in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening, Nov. 3rd, instead of Oct. 27th.

The Metropolitan Ladies Orchestra of Chicago will appear at the Didsbury Opera House on November 6th under the auspices of the Citizens Band. A programme of vocal and instrumental music will be rendered.

The Loyal Temperance Legion will hold a Halloween social for the young people of Didsbury in the assembly hall of the public school on Thursday evening, Oct. 31st. They cordially invite all the young people of the town to be present as a good time is assured.

The members of the Didsbury Adventist church spent Sabbath and Sunday with their Neapolis friends and report spending a good time. Elder Aalborg of Calgary conducted services, which were well attended, and on Sunday were interspersed with solos, duets and choruses by various friends.

An Explanation

Editor Pioneer—Dear Sir:

The ratepayers who were indignant on Railway street on account of there being a subscription list presented to them are, I am afraid, the ones whose names do not appear below. Although not all were asked, the said parties being men of brains, all gave willingly. As to the Council being to blame, it may appear they are. Be that as it is, the following are the facts:

From the north crossing east to Lackner avenue, a distance of about 1,000 feet, is not a registered street, which the Council could not work, but from Lackner avenue to Franklin avenue, a distance of about 1,000 feet, being a registered street, we decided to try and work, and all of Princess street as it would cost but a little more. But in order to do a job worthy of notice we asked a little aid. No one was hurt, compelled, held up, or abused. Neither did I receive any injury. What our past grievance has been is a sidewalk. As to east Didsbury having two Councillors, we cannot find but one, although there may be one in

Now listen, if we as ratepayers of Didsbury would consider this our town and not as belonging to the Councilor and get out and do a little work without pay as the Councilman does, we could have in one summer the best improved and cleanest town on the line. Come along, let us try it. What do you say?

A reply to this is in order, from any ratepayer. Below is a full report of the work done on Princess street.

MANITOBA S.S. CONVENTION
The 1912 Convention the Biggest and Best Yet. Brandon, November 20th to 22nd.

Preparations are well under way for the Thirty-third Annual Convention of the Manitoba Sunday School Association. It is to be held in Brandon, November 20-22. The railways will carry delegates at single fare for round trip. It will be necessary to secure a certificate from each road traveled over and when signed by the General Superintendent, will entitle the holder to a free return ticket to their respective homes.

The committee have been fortunate in securing the services of Rev. W. A. Brown of Chicago as the chief speaker. He is one of the strongest men on the Sunday School platform in America.

Prof. L. L. Henry of Chicago, will have full charge of the musical part of the program.

In addition to the outside talent, between forty and fifty of the best speakers and experts of the province both ministers and laymen, will take part.

Some of the leading features of this great gathering will be a number of luncheons—one a Business Men's luncheon at noon hour, a program of addresses, papers and music will follow each of these—a street parade, a great choir of children's voices, Rallies and an installation service.

This annual gathering has grown in numbers and influence to such proportions that it is one of the greatest delegated bodies meeting in Western Canada. An inspiring and helpful time is assured all who attend. For full information address W. H. Irwin, 62 Scott Block, Winnipeg.

FEARFUL HEADACHES
STOMACH BAD, NO APPETITE, WAS LOSING WEIGHT AND STRENGTH
Wonderful Change When Health Was Restored by

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Headache is a symptom and not a disease in itself. It acts as a danger signal to warn you of serious trouble.

By reading Mr. Donneral's letter you are assured that there is no treatment to be compared to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a means of building up the system and removing the cause of headaches, sleeplessness and indigestion.

Mr. Charles Donneral, Kleinburg, Ont., writes: "I wish to communicate to you the great cure which I received from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. For over two years I suffered from fearful headaches, my appetite was always poor, and the stomach bad. I took medicines from physicians, but the headaches persisted, and I was rarely free from them.

"Reading about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I began using it, with little idea that I would be benefited. I had become thin and weak, and the very first box helped me, and with continued treatment I have been cured and feel like a new man. The headaches have disappeared, my appetite is good and digestion excellent. I write this letter in hope that other sufferers from headache may use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and be cured."

A More Serious Matter
Judge Giles Baker, of a Pennsylvania county, was likewise cashier of his home bank. A man presented a cheque one day for payment. He was a stranger. His evidence of identification was not satisfactory to the cashier. Why, Judge, said the man, I've known you to sentence men to be hanged on no better evidence than this. Very likely, replied the judge. But when it comes to letting go of cold cash we have to be mighty careful.

HAD I(A) SORES FOUR YEARS
Zam-Buk Has Healed It!

Mrs. Wilson, 110 Wickson Ave., Toronto, says: "About four years ago a sore spot appeared on the right side of my face. This spot increased in size until it became about half an inch in diameter and very painful. I went to a doctor, but the ointment he gave me did not have any good effect. The sore continued to discharge freely, and was most painful. I had it cauterized, tried poultices, and all kinds of salves, but it was no good, and I continued to suffer from it for four years!

"A sample of Zam-Buk was one day given to me, and I used it. Although the quantity was so small, it seemed to do me some good, so I purchased a further supply.

Each box did me more and more good, and, to my delight, before I had been using Zam-Buk three weeks, I saw that it was going to heal the sore. In less than a month it was healed!

"I know a lady in the east of the city, whose husband suffered for years with an open sore on his leg. On my recommendation, Zam-Buk was tried in that case. The other day, when I saw her, she told me that it had healed the sore completely.

"My daughter, who lives in Lethbridge, Alta., has also used Zam-Buk with the same satisfactory result. I think it is, beyond all doubt, the finest healing balm known."

Such is the opinion of all persons who have really tried Zam-Buk. It is a sure cure for eczema, piles, abscesses, sores, bruises, and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c. box, all drugists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. In case of skin disease use also Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.

The Oil for the Athlete.—In rubbing down the athlete can find nothing finer than Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

Mr. Justyn, said the editor, looking over a new reporter's story of a political meeting, in his writup of yours you say resistless waves of applause from the audience fairly overwhelmed the speaker. Look at the absurdity of that figure of speech. How could a resistless wave of applause or anything else come from an audience? It could come from a set of upturned faces, couldn't it? Insisted the new reporter.

A prisoner on his trial, in answer to the charge pleaded "Not guilty." The jury found the charge proved and in passing sentence the judge said: "You're not only guilty, but you come here and tell lies, saying you're not."

The prisoner who followed next for trial was doubtless influenced by this and supposed it would be well for him to take another course, so he pleaded Guilty, in an almost self-satisfied voice.

Oh, you're guilty, are you, said the judge, and come here to brag about it, do you?

Backache Means Your Kidneys Want Help!
The kidneys are among the most important organs. They are most subject to periods of depression, imperfect action and lowered vitality. Invariably, they are warning, in the form of backache, headache, pains in the joints, etc. Wise people, careful of their health, act quickly when any of these symptoms appear. Careless or careless persons often permit a slight affection of the kidneys to grow into acute or chronic kidney trouble, ignoring the plainly-given warning of unhealthy kidneys. The New Rural Municipal Act

In connection with the question of assessment and taxation, it might be pointed out that there is ample provision in the Act for appeal being made from any assessment which any ratepayer should deem to be unjust. The Council will sit as a Court of Revision to deal with all such appeals, and if any ratepayer is not satisfied with their decision, he may appeal from that decision to a Judge of the District Court. The costs of such appeal will only be the costs of witnesses and the procuring of their attendance. The decision of the Judge shall be final.

While the limit of the ordinary rate of taxation is placed at 1 per cent. or 10 mills on the dollar, it might be pointed out that for small areas of little value there is a minimum rate for Municipal tax of $2.00 and a minimum rate of school tax of $2.00. This provision will apply more particularly in the case of subdivided lands within a Rural Municipality. Where a ratepayer owns only one lot which may not be of sufficient value to bring in $2.00 for taxes at the rate levied, the amount he will have to pay will be $2.00 for Municipal purposes and $2.00 for school purposes.

In connection with the payment of taxes it is provided that a Municipality may, if so desired, allow a rebate of 25 per cent. on taxes levied on lands cultivated and cropped during the previous year. This rebate would work out as follows:

Suppose a ratepayer has 100 acres under crop and the taxes on that acreage for any one year amounted to $4.00. If the Council allows a rebate of 25 per cent., this ratepayer would pay $3.00 instead of $4.00, but the ratepayer holding a similar acreage which was not being cultivated and cropped would have to pay the full amount of $4.00. It is, of course, optional with the Municipality whether or not this rebate should be allowed, but the allowance of such a rebate would no doubt have a tendency to encourage the cultivation of the land.

The Municipality has full power to enforce payment of delinquent taxes either by levying distress, by entering suit or by taking action to forfeit and sell the land.

There is also provision in the Act whereby any Municipality may unite with nineteen other Municipalities to form a hail insurance district. A by-law to do this must be submitted to the resident electors of the Municipality and receive a majority vote before it can become law. As soon as twenty Municipalities within a reasonable distance of each other have passed such a by-law, a hail insurance district will be established by the Department. This hail insurance district will have a board to look after the affairs of such district. This board, which will be made up of the Reeves of the different Municipalities included, will make an estimate of the amount that will be required to meet current losses within the hail district. They will then notify the different Municipalities as to the amount required, and a rate will be levied accordingly on all assessable lands within the Municipalities in the hail district. The board will employ the necessary officials such as Secretary-Treasurer and Inspectors. Losses may be reported to any member of the board which will forthwith cause an Inspector to inspect the loss and report thereon. The maximum indemnity for a loss is $6.00 per acre. Any person may appeal from the Inspector's report to the board, and the decision of the board in regard to any loss will be final. Where any hail insurance district is formed, the board is required to forward a statement of the rate to be levied in the different Municipalities to the Minister of Municipal Affairs before the 15th day of January, to be approved. Where a hail insurance district is established it is required to continue in operation for five years, after which any Municipality, if the majority of the resident electors so decide by voting on a by-law, may withdraw from the organization, and if less than twenty Municipalities remain in the hail district there is provision for the winding up of the affairs of the hail insurance district. By the organizing of a district of this kind the electors of a Municipality will be able to obtain hail insurance at cost. Their grain will be insured because it is within the boundaries of the hail insurance district, and it will not be necessary for any application to be made for insurance. There is, therefore, no danger of a farmer forgetting to insure his crop as sometimes occurs under the present conditions. As all assessable land is subject to assessment for hail insurance, it can easily be seen that a very small levy will bring in sufficient to meet all losses. As an example of the expense in a hail insurance district, let us take a case where lands within a hail insurance district have an average value of $10.00 per acre. A rate of 1 mill will bring in $40,000.00, which at a value of $10.00 per acre would only be 1 cent. per acre, or $1.60 per quarter section. This rate over a whole hail insurance district would permit of a maximum indemnity being paid on some 6,000 acres, allow for considerable acreage not subject to assessment on account of being Dominion government land, and also allow for the expenses of administration. If the amount raised in any one year was in excess of the amount required, it would lower the assessment in the following year accordingly.

In connection with Municipal organization there appears in some places to be a fear on the part of the ratepayers that they may be subject to very heavy taxation and may get very deeply in debt by borrowing money by debentures. In reply to this it may be pointed out that the rate of taxation is fixed by the Councilors elected by the ratepayers of the Municipality. The question as to the rate of taxation is, therefore, a question which rests entirely in the hands of the ratepayers themselves. All money by-laws must be voted on by the ratepayers, and unless a two-thirds majority of them are in favor of the debentures being issued, they cannot be issued. Then again, where there is any fear that the Councilors are spending the money of the Municipality in any other way than for the best interests of the Municipality, a meeting may be called by any twelve electors petitioning the Reeve to do so in order that the affairs of the Municipality may be discussed. The Council of the Municipality is required to call a meeting two weeks before the date of nomination for the discussion of Municipal affairs. It is also required that a copy of the Auditor's report should be mailed to each ratepayer. In this way all the ratepayers may be kept closely in touch and fully informed of the way in which their money is expended, and if business is not being properly carried on they will be in a position to have matters remedied. Thus the whole matter is in the hands of the ratepayers, and the Act

Only Lady Anne retained her self-control. To Harry it seemed that in the turmoil of her mind she hardly noticed this elemental storm, or that she took it only as a fit accompaniment for her agitated thoughts.

You wished to see your aunt, Lady Clavel, she said in a pause of the storm to Reuben. This is she.

Reuben took a step forward towards the still figure in the serge gown.

Then, he paused abruptly.

She is so much changed, he said in an awkward voice. I shouldn't have known her. Will you tell her who I am?

This is Reuben Symonds, Lady Anne said in a clear, expressionless voice. He tells me he is the son of your husband's sister Marion.

I don't only tell you so, Reuben exclaimed, but I am her son. Also, as you and my aunt must know very well, I am the master of this place and all the Clavel property now that I have come from Australia to England to claim it. I don't know why there should have been all this trouble and difficulty about letting me in. I should think I had as much right to visit my own property and to see my own relations as strangers have, even if they are well-off tourists from America, he added with a vindictive glance at Harry.

No one took up the challenge. Reuben's self-confidence which never deserted him for long, was coming rapidly back at the sound of his own voice.

Even the storm outside, which every now and then made its words inaudible, and the strange changes from vivid light to inky darkness about him, failed to impress him with his own unimportance. Mr. Symonds' pride and vanity had been hurt, and he was not going to let either the disdainful indifference of strangers or the tumult of a thunder-storm curb his eloquence.

It isn't as if I wanted to turn you out of this place, he went on in an aggrieved tone to Lady Anne. Mouldering abbey aren't in my line at all. You are at liberty to stop here as long as you care to be my tenant. Only, if I wanted to be disagreeable, I might say that my aunt doesn't look as if you wasted much attention upon her. Is that the style in which she usually receives visitors to afternoon tea?

If you have nothing more to say to Lady Clavel, Mr. Symonds, I will ask her maid to accompany her back to her rooms. She is not strong, Lady Anne remarked.

Reuben came nearer to her. She looks half-starved, he observed in a confidential undertone, and she oughtn't to be allowed to go about in that sort of ragged get-up. Is she quite right in her head?

As no notice was taken of his question, Reuben addressed himself to the silent figure in black serge.

Eczema 25 Years
Cured by "Cuticura"

Leg Like Raw Flesh from Knee Down

"I have been treated by doctors for twenty-five years for a bad case of eczema on my leg. They did their best, but failed to cure it. My own doctor had advised me to have my leg cut off, but I said I would try the Cuticura Remedies first. He said, 'try them if you like but I do not think they will do any good.' At this time my leg was peeling from the knee down, my foot was like a piece of raw flesh and I had to walk on crutches.

"I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent. After the first two treatments the swelling went down and in two months' use of the Cuticura Remedies my leg was cured and the new skin grew on. The doctor could not believe his own eyes when he saw that Cuticura had cured me and said that he would use Cuticura for his own patients. But for the Cuticura Remedies I might have lost my life. I am truly grateful for the wonderful cure that Cuticura wrought and I always recommend it most highly as a sure and economical cure for skin troubles." (Signed) MME. J. B. RENAUD, 277 MENAUNA ST., MONTREAL.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the speediest and most economical treatment for skin and scalp humors. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book, send to POTTER D. & C. Corp., 49 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A.

You haven't said you are glad to see me yet, Aunt Isabel, he said with an attempt at gaiety of tone. It's true I haven't met you for twenty years or so, and I must say you've altered astonishingly. I suppose you really are Lady Clavel? he added doubtfully.

An expression of acute distress passed over the face of the person he addressed.

Not that name! she murmured in a low, hoarse voice. Any name but that!

Marla, Lady Anne said quickly, take your mistress back to her apartments. She must not be tormented any more.

The servant advanced and slipped her arm gently around the back-robbed form, murmuring some words in Spanish. But at the moment when the two were turning to leave the room the lightning flashed out again and for a moment played around the head of Harry Clavel, bringing his features into strong relief.

Lady Clavel stopped short with her eyes fixed upon his face.

Who is that? she asked sharply? A peal of thunder checked the answer. When it had ceased Lady Anne with a sudden flush in her cheeks, laid her hand on Harry's arm.

This is your other nephew, she said in clear, staccato tones, the only child of your husband's brother. His name is Henry Clavel.

Dead silence followed her announcement. Then the thunder began to roar and beat about the house again, and Lady Clavel moved a few steps towards Harry.

Say it is not true! she muttered, raising two long wasted hands in supplication.

Of course it is not true! put in Reuben, who had been at first too much astonished and too angry to speak. The fellow is an American named Worth. He pretends to be anything else it is a put-up affair. Luckily, my interests are safe in the hands of the family lawyers of the Clavels, and they will know how to treat imposters of any sort.

Send the imposter away, Aunt Lady Clavel broke out with a sudden wildness in her looks and voice. There is nothing for them to gain here. Why have they come?

I have told you and everybody my reason for coming, persisted Reuben, and I don't mean to be frightened out of it. What this fellow wants I don't know. But I am claiming the Clavel property. It is mine by right and I mean to have it.

You will never do that!

It was Lady Clavel who spoke. She stood before him, ghostly and unsubstantial, with her colorless face in which the cheek bones seemed to absolutely pierce the skin, and her melancholy, hollow voice.

Go back, both of you, she said, pointing a lean forefinger at the two young men. Go back to the world of happiness and hope outside this house. Can you not see there is a curse upon the place? You are young; has life no charm for you that you come here among graves and ruins to seek for death? Of what use will a few miles of earth be to you when you are lying in the tomb? Go back!

Her form seemed to gain in height and her voice in power as she stood before them like some aged Sibyl warning them against their destiny. As she finished speaking the light of fierce animation which had suddenly come into her eyes died out of them. Her arms fell to her sides, her head dropped forward, and she seemed to sway as she stood.

Lady Anne sprang forward to support her, and with Marla walked towards the door.

Here she paused.

Mr. Clavel, she said, we have been forgetting Miss Morgan through all this. When I have seen Lady Clavel safely to her room I will return a look after her. Please stay with her until I come back. And Mr. Symonds, may I ask you to leave us now?

A private of this corps, while a prisoner in the guard-room for a military offence, bet the sergeant of the guard five rupees that he would make the commanding officer laugh when he was taken before him.

In due course, after reading the charge, the colonel asked the prisoner:

Have you anything to say?

I won't say anything more about it, sir, if you won't was the unexpected reply.

The grim face relaxed, but the stern decision came all the same—Fourteen days confined to barracks.

A DOCTOR'S TRIALS

He Sometimes Gets Sick Like Other People

Even doing good to people is hard work if you have too much of it to do.

An overworked doctor tell his experience:

"About three years ago as the result of doing two men's work, attending a large practice and looking after the details of another business, my health broke down completely, and I was little better than a physical wreck.

"I suffered from indigestion and constipation, loss of weight and appetite, bloating and pain after meals, loss of memory and lack of nerve force for continued mental application.

"I became irritable, easily angered and despondent without cause. The heart's action became irregular and weak, with frequent attacks of palpitation during the first hour or two after retiring.

"Some Grape-Nuts and cut bananas came for my lunch one day and pleased me particularly with the result. I got more satisfaction from it than from anything I had eaten for months, and on further investigation and use, adopted Grape-Nuts for my morning and evening meals, served usually with cream and a sprinkle of salt or sugar.

"My improvement was rapid and permanent, in weight as well as in physical and mental endurance. In a word, I am filled with the joy of living again, and continue the daily use of Grape-Nuts for breakfast and often for the evening meal.

"The little pamphlet, 'The Road to Wellville,' found in pkgs., is invariably saved and handed to some needy patient along with the indicated remedy."

"There's a reason."

More About
The Loading Platform

The present generation of Western farmers will never know the difficulties and vexations experienced by their predecessors in the earlier years when no one could get a carload of grain shipped in bulk except by loading it through an elevator. The system forced the majority of farmers to sell their grain to the elevator owners at arbitrary prices, and oft times to submit to heavy dockage and other annoyances, causing continual dissatisfaction. Now, however, the distribution of cars as fixed by the Grain Act and the use of the loading platform, provide facilities which enable the farmer to secure satisfactory treatment in the disposal of his grain, and the highest market prices at time of sale. Every farmer therefore, should more and more endeavor to use the loading platform in shipping his grain to the terminal elevators. It is the safeguard of the farmer's freedom in disposing of his grain to the best advantage for himself. If farmers refrain from using the loading platform freely, it might result in its being done away with, because railway companies and elevator owners are strongly opposed to it. It is easy to understand why elevator people desire the loading platform abolished. The railway people on their part say it delays the loading of cars and helps to ensure car shortages. This we know to be nonsense, because frequently after cars are loaded, whether with grain, coal, lumber, or other merchandise, they are sidetracked for days and even weeks instead of being promptly moved forward to destination. It is engine shortage and shortage of competent train men that mostly causes grain blockades on railways and not lack of cars. Let every farmer therefore, do all he can to use the loading platform and become an independent shipper. In subsequent advertisements we will state in detail the savings and other advantages of direct loading into cars compared with loading through elevators.

We handle the farmers' grain strictly on commission, make liberal advances on car bills of lading, supervise the grading at time cars are inspected, secure the highest prices at time of sale and make prompt returns when sold. Write us for shipping instructions and market information.

THE CROP ESTIMATE

SEPTEMBER RAINS WERE THE CAUSE OF SOME DAMAGE

A Little Early Yet for Final Estimates on Total Extent of Crop, but the Average Yield is Expected to be Higher Than Last Year. Little Damage From Frost.

Ottawa.—A bulletin issued by the census and statistics office covers the crop condition in Canada for the month ended September 30. It states that during this month wet weather continued to prevail over most parts of Canada, especially over the provinces of Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba. At Sept. 30, large areas of grain both in the east and in the west were still either uncut or were exposed to the wet in stock. Much damage has been caused by sprouting and in the north-west provinces second growth has in numerous instances caused uneven ripening and consequent lowering of grade. Frost during September in these provinces did some damage, but as a rule only late crops including flax, were seriously affected. In parts of Southern Ontario the ground is so wet that many farmers have abandoned the sowing of the fall wheat for next year.

The estimates of the yield published a month ago could only be regarded as of preliminary value, because in consequence of the bad weather and late seasons harvesting operations had made no little progress.

The new estimates of yield obtained from correspondents at the end of September confirm generally the previous estimates for most of the crops, but inasmuch as very little threshing had been possible and large areas of the grain were still unharvested, it is feared that the final estimates after completion of the threshing, may turn out lower than the figures now given. For spring wheat the estimated production is 188,816,600 bushels, as compared with 189,904,500 bushels last year.

For fall wheat the estimate is 16,868,700 bushels, compared with 26,014,000 bushels last year, the total estimated wheat production being therefore 205,685,300 bushels as compared with 215,918,500 bushels in 1911 a decrease of five per cent. The yield per acre is 21.08 bushels for all wheat as against 20.77 bushels last year.

Oats show a total production of 381,502,000 bushels, compared with 348,585,600 bushels last year, the yield per acre being 41.39 bushels, compared with 37.75. Barley is estimated to yield a total of 300,395,100 bushels compared with 400,331,000 bushels last year; the yield per acre 31.00 bushels against 28.94. The total production of rye is 3,086,000 bushels against 2,688,800 bushels in 1911, the yields per acre being respectively 20.75 and 17.41 bushels of oats, barley and rye. Increases in total production as compared with last year represent percentages of 9, 8 and 15.

Mounted Men Underpaid

Ottawa.—Demands from new settlements throughout Western Canada for detachments of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police become more insistent as western development proceeds and the demand exceeds the supply. The force at present consists of 656 officers and men, which is forty-four below the strength, the full strength being 700. Despite an average recruiting of 15 men a month the club is scarcely able to hold its own on account of the unavoidable waste from dismissals, deaths, term expirations, etc.

It is stated that a considerable number of men have been recruited in the old country recently but that a large proportion did not come up to the requirements. The rate of pay in the R.N.W.M.P. in comparison to wages in the west is said to be too low to attract recruits.

Welland Canal Enlargement

Ottawa.—The Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways and Canals has returned from a tour of inspection over the Welland Canal.

While it is well known that the Government intends to hasten the construction of this work, it is realized that owing to a lack of information which is necessary for specifications it will be impossible to let any contracts until next spring.

Engineers are now at work, however, taking bearings and securing the required information. Next year will see the commencement of the actual construction work, there is every reason to believe.

Crow's Nest Miners Threaten to Strike

Calgary, Alta.—Failing to get their claims for yardage submitted for arbitration, the miners in the employ of the Crow's Nest Coal company, numbering 2,000, have practically declared they will continue negotiations no longer, but will go on strike. Notice to this effect has been served on the company and the miners claim ignored by the company. The president of the union has issued the statutory notice to strike, and a board on industrial disputes has been asked for in an application to the minister of labor.

Civil Service Reforms

Ottawa.—It is announced that the contemplated Civil Service reforms, include the placing of skilled mechanics under the control of the Civil Service Commission.

There are a large number of these mechanics in the Government's employ, and these are classed as laborers.

CHRISTIANIZE THE ESQUIMAUX

Anglican Clergy Won't be Influenced by Stefansson's Views

Montreal.—Great enthusiasm was aroused at a meeting of the Board of Management of the Anglican church in Canada by speeches of Bishop Stringer of the Yukon and Rev. C. E. Whitaker of Mackenzie River in regard to the much talked of tribe of blonde Esquimaux recently discovered in the Coppermine river and Coronation Gulf districts, within the Arctic circle.

Doubt has been cast upon the evidence of the existence of this tribe, but proofs of the most convincing character were laid before the meeting by the bishop and his colleague, including an actual photograph of some of the very people concerning which much discussion has recently arisen, thus confirming the statements of Mr. Stefansson of the tribe.

Referring to the alleged recommendation of Mr. Stefansson that all influences of civilization, including Christian ministrations, be kept away from these people the bishop told of the marvellous transformation of character that has followed the missionaries' work among other tribes of Esquimaux.

A very few years ago they were given up to thieving, licentiousness, murder, polygamy and infanticide.

Now they are living lives that would be creditable to any Christian congregation.

Bishop Stringer stated that he was satisfied that many of the statements accorded to Mr. Stefansson in the press did not emanate from him. He also declared that at the present time one of his clergy, Rev. W. H. Fyfe, accompanied by twelve Christian Esquimaux from Mackenzie Delta, are on their way to the Coppermine district and the natives are all travelling at their own cost.

FATHER VAUGHAN IN WEST

Noted Cleric Gives Utterances to Characteristic Advice

Moose Jaw.—The Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan, S.J., was in Moose Jaw recently and interviewed on his impressions of the west, said:—

"To my way of thinking there never was a land more ready to give a living wage to anyone who is ready to give in exchange an honest day's work. My advice to Old Countrymen coming out here in the future will be: Leave your eye-glasses at home, and your knickerbockers and your hypercriticalism and your superiority, put on a pair of overalls, pull off your coat roll up your sleeves and put your back into your work till you are through with it. Then instead of being all in, down and out, you will come out on top and will become a useful member of an enterprising community, and not at all a bad advertisement for the Old Country."

SESSION IN JANUARY

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT MAY BE DEFERRED

The Rumor is Current That the House Will not Meet Until January, and Report That Hon. F. D. Monk Will Resign Before the House Meets is Again Revived.

Ottawa.—A meeting of the cabinet council was held recently and when it was over it was stated that the date for the assembling of parliament had not yet been fixed. Delay in the announcement has led to the revival of the rumor that the house will not meet until January. It is probable, however, that no definite decision has yet been announced. The report that Hon. F. D. Monk will resign before the house meets has been revived. The report naturally is connected with the consideration of the naval question, it being asserted in home quarters that the minister of public works desires to have the proposal to grant an emergency contribution to the Imperial Exchequer submitted to a plebescite of the Canadian people.

It is stated that the proposal which Premier Borden will submit to his cabinet is the immediate contribution of thirty million dollars and the repeal of the Laurier naval act. This will constitute the temporary policy of the government, the permanent policy to be brought down a year later. Whatever truth there may be in the report that Mr. Monk may retire would appear that there is something under the surface that is delaying the announcement of the date of the opening of parliament.

In both political and official circles the impression is gradually growing stronger that there is at least an even chance that parliament will not convene till January. A decision to defer the opening until a later date will be pleasing to the majority of western and maritime members, many of whom have within the past couple of months expressed the desire that there should be no November session with a long recess over Christmas and New Year, which makes it necessary for them either to take a long trip to their homes or remain in Ottawa with nothing to do for a period of three weeks.

HARVEST HANDS NEEDED

Farmers Believe Vast Crop Will be Gleaned by End of October

Winnipeg.—Harvesters are coming in, said J. Bruce Walker, but not in as large numbers as I would like to see. Saskatchewan is very much in need of men, and at Saskatoon the farmers are paying as high as $4.50 and $4.75 per day. It seems that in every point in Manitoba farmers are short of men, and are offering a uniform price of $3.00 per day. At Virken 100 men are needed, and a loud hue and cry comes from Morden, Manitou, Pilot Mound, Killarney, Deloraine, Carman, Elm Creek and Telesme.

The rate of one cent a mile in Manitoba will be in effect until the end of October, and the one-half cent rate will be effective to points further west until the 25th. Even the small number that have responded to the call will help to solve the vexing question of the gathering of the grains before the frost comes, and with continued dry spell the farmers are quite sure that there will be very little left of the vast crop by the end of October.

In the agricultural districts around Saskatoon the demand for help is greatest. At this point as high as $4.75 a day has been offered and yet the farmers declare they cannot get sufficient men.

Conference on Grain Situation

Ottawa.—Arrangements were made recently for a conference between the Railway Commission, the Grain Commission and representatives of Western railway lines to be held in Winnipeg to settle the question of railway facilities for the sample market, which is to be established in the Manitoba capital in connection with the grain situation.

Prof. Magill, chairman of the Grain Commission, was in Ottawa today and completed arrangements for the conference.

The date is not yet fixed but will probably be the latter part of November, when the Railway Commission has completed the adjourned sitting of the freight rate inquiry. At the same time the board will hold a number of sessions in the West.

Prof. Magill also took up with the Trade and Commerce Department a number of questions with a view to facilitating the rapid movement of the crop.

He reports that grain is moving rapidly and is of a high grade. They are hopeful that there will not be a blockade, and he reports that the railways are doing everything possible to handle the enormous crop which is pouring into Fort William and Port Arthur.

Work on the new Government owned elevator is being rushed as rapidly as possible, and it will be ready in time to help handle the crop of 1913.

Heart Rending Suffering

London.—Considerable bodies of Serbian troops have been sent across the Bulgarian border to join the Bulgarian army, says a despatch from Nisch.

Describing the terrible condition of the hospital at Tush, a Podgoritz correspondent says that a hundred wounded Turks are lying around half naked, awaiting treatment. The floors are covered with patrid medicinal dressings. The Turkish doctors are apathetic, doing nothing.

The Cetinje correspondent of the Daily Mail tells of crying need for first aid societies. He says the hospital arrangements at Podgoritz are very bad. There is no proper sanitation and operations are performed in the crudest manner after days of delay with no preliminary dressing.

It is thought probably that the fighting will cease for a few days, the southern army having suffered heavily.

A constant stream of wounded adds the correspondent, has arrived in the last three days, which proves the struggle to have been desperate and costly. The official figures of 1,000 killed and wounded probably is an under-estimate.

AIRMEN SAVED BY HELMET

Falls Sixty Feet and Lands on His Head, only Slightly Shaken

London.—Cyril Foggin, a pupil at the Eastbourne Aerodrome, had a remarkable escape from death yesterday.

He fell with his machine from a height of sixty feet, and escaped with nothing worse than a shaking. He owes his life undoubtedly to his safety helmet.

Mr. Foggin was flying well in a light monoplane when the machine side-slipped and fell. It was completely wrecked, and the spectators rushed forward expecting to find the airman dead. He was not even stunned, and only complained of a slight headache.

Mr. Foggin said afterward that he pitched forward and his head struck the front of the machine. The helmet which he was wearing was deeply dented.

The airman attributes the accident to his unfamiliarity with the type of machine.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON IV.—FOURTH QUARTER FOR OCTOBER 27, 1912

Text of the Lesson, Mark vii, 31 to viii, 10—Memory Verses, 34, 35—Golden Text Mark vii, 37—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, where He had comforted the mother's heart and honored and commended her faith, He returned to the sea of Galilee, a journey of forty or fifty miles, but nothing is said of the journey. How little we think of His long walks from one part of the country to another. It is easy to travel in our day, and there is a vast amount of it done, but very few do it on foot and for Him, yet I do know some missionaries who are very like Him in this respect. Verses 32 to 37 of our lesson are recorded only by Mark and tell of the healing of a deaf and dumb man. Some are dumb because they cannot speak and others are dumb because they will not speak.

It is sometimes wise for those who can both hear and speak to be as if they were both deaf and dumb (Pe. xxxviii, 13). Too many are dumb because they do not feel constrained to speak. Their remedy may be found in Ps. xxxix, 3; Ezek. lii, 27; Jer. xx, 8, 9. If any are inclined to plead slowness of speech or the inefficiency of youth they be helped by Ex. iv, 12, Jer. i, 7-9. All need that which our Lord commended in Acts iv, 31. All may come unto Him, and He knows at once a right way for each. His way with this particular man was unique, but it must have been the right way for him. He took him aside from the multitude. He often takes us aside that He may cause us to hear or see or know something He could not otherwise teach us. It is blessed to be taken aside with Him. I like the verse which says that we should live together with Him (I Thess. v, 10). We have read of many being healed by touching Him or the hem of His garment, but see His fingers on this man's ears and tongue, and instantly he could hear and speak plainly.

Was the power in His touch or in the words "Be opened," or in both? More important for me to be able to say that He hath touched me and hush spoken to me, and taught me to say "He hath done all things well."

Just here Matthew records that He went up into a mountain and sat down and great multitudes came to Him bringing the lame, blind, dumb, maimed and others and cast them at His feet, and He healed them, and they glorified and God of Israel (Matt. xv, 20, 31). When Israel came out of Egypt there was not one feeble among their tribes and when the kingdom comes the inhabitant shall not say, "I am sick." There shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them nor any heat." (Ps. cv, 37; Isa. xxxiii, 24; xlix, 10; Rev. vii, 16; xxi, 4). Do you wonder that Jesus told them of such a kingdom as He fed them and healed them. What can we think of those who know of such a kingdom and are doing nothing to make it known to others who might be glad to become inheritors of it if they only knew about it and knew how to become heirs to it?

Returning to the record in Mark, we read that the multitudes had been with Him three days with nothing to eat, and some had come long distances so He had compassion upon them and said to the disciples, "If I send them away fasting they will faint by the way." Did He really care and does He care if we are faint and weary? Oh, yes, He cares; I know He cares. It matters to Him even about sparrows, and He clothes the lilies. The disciples seem surprised at His remarks and ask: Whence can a man satisfy these with bread here in the wilderness? Well, that depends upon the man. An ordinary man could not, but who is this man? Had they forgotten that so recently they had taken food from His hands to more than 5,000 people and had seen Him control and subdue a great storm? Yes, it is the old story of Ps. lxxviii: "They forgot His works and His wonders that He had showed them. They said: Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?" Having ascertained that they had seven loaves and a few small fishes, He took them and gave thanks and broke them and gave to the disciples to set before the people and they did all eat and were filled.

He took what they had and used it as on the former occasion, though He might have rained it from Heaven (Ps. lxxviii, 24). The poor widow had a pot of oil, and He multiplied that. Another widow had a little meal and oil and He multiplied that. He can create out of nothing, but He seems to love to take what we have and increase it. He wants it all given over to Him, as these and the lad gave all into His hands, as He Himself gave up all for us. He has provided a full and complete eternal redemption which He freely gives to every one willing to receive Him. Then He asks those who have received Him, and to whom He has given all, to forsake all that they have that they may become His disciples (Rom. vi, 23; John i, 12; Luke xiv, 33), to be used by Him as He will. He is all fulness, the fulness of the God head bodily, and we may be filled by Him for the benefit of others (Col. i, 19; H, 9, 10).

The Doom of the Turk

By THEODORE H. BOICE

NOW the turkey's days are numbered, and he won't have long to wait. For the proclamation's issued fixing our Thanksgiving date.

At the end of this October there will be a royal feast, And we'll hear a cry for turkey from the highest to the least.

There'll be pumpkin pie and fixin's down each eager throat to toast, There'll be many palate ticklers and the fixin' cranberry sauce, And there'll be a lot of dainties some will feel inclined to shirk, But not one of all the eaters will decline a slice of turkey.

There'll be children, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, With the turkey on the table as the object that enchants, And if they are still as hungry as on feasting days before They'll not stop at the good serving, but will pass their plates for more.

There'll be trouble for the carver, though he tries to do his best, When too many call for drumsticks and too many want the breast; There'll be frequent calls for "stuffing" in the most personal tones, And before the feast is ended there'll be nothing left but bones.

So get ready, Mister Gobbler, and get ready, Mistress Hen, For Thanksgiving day is coming, and you'll see your finish then. Now, at last, your days are numbered, and you won't have long to wait. At the end of this October you'll be smoking on the plate.

GOLD FOR PASSERSBY

Old Man on Paris Street Asks Them to Help Themselves

Paris.—An old man in the Boulevard de Bonne Nouvelle yesterday approached passersby with a handful of gold and silver, and begged them to help themselves.

The money is for the poor, he said; take what you want. The persons thus addressed did not wait to be asked twice, and soon the old man had distributed some $100.

He would have continued his distribution but for the arrival of a policeman who asked the old man to follow him to the police station. There it was found that he was a rich proprietor at Chaumont-en-Vexis and a harmless lunatic.

Whale as Pilot

Edinburgh.—Seafaring men on the Arth of Forth are greatly interested in a whale, about 10 feet long, which has taken up its quarters in the upper reaches. When an approaching ship sounds its siren the whale proceeds down the Forth, swims round it, and finally proceeds it with its destination is reached.

TOWN WASHED AWAY

Men, Women and Children Struggle in Big Flood

Rome.—A waterspout passed through Castellamare, on the southern coast of Sicily, yesterday evening devastating the town in a few minutes.

The streets were covered with water to a depth of four feet. Houses collapsed, and the open spaces were filled with men, women and children struggling in the flood. Some of them were drowned and others rescued, with difficulty. A number of persons lost their lives through being buried in debris.

Troops were sent from Trapani to assist in restoring order and providing shelters for the survivors.

The exceptionally dry weather in northern Italy has been followed by numerous forest fires. An area comprising nearly 100 square miles is reported to be in flames near Savona.

Medicine Hat.—As a result of the police census it is announced that Medicine Hat has a population of over 11,000, being a gain of six thousand within the last twelve months.

Westcott News

The stork visited Wm. Hodgson's home the other day and left visitors in the form of triplet babies. Unfortunately all of them died in less than a day.

F. W. Bauer has returned to Westcott after a summer's vacation in England. During his absence he secured a life companion in the form of a Mrs. F. W. Bauer, who will join him later.

A report is current that J. H. Brawn and Harry Levagood are going to spend the winter in B. C. with the intention of going into business, although we have not heard it personally from either party.

Threshers have been able to work about one day a week so far on account of the wet weather. It looks very much as if there would be threshing to do all winter.

Don't forget that Harry Levagood is going to have a sale in the near future.

A report is in circulation that Rex Dollman has taken over the interest of Mrs. James and Percy Meredith in a section of land and Merediths will leave for Chicago as soon as the business can be disposed of.

Neapolis Notes

(Received too late for last week's issue.)

Miss Lennie Stuart visited on Saturday with Mrs. Phill Ward and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bentz of Olds visited Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Oldham Sunday.

Mrs. Ferguson's youngest child came near losing her life on Thursday last. The children, who were playing on the roof of the granary, dislodged a heavy iron which fell and struck the little one on the head, rendering her unconscious and for a time had spasms, but through the prompt response of Dr. Weart she is now recovering.

Soon the hum of the thresher, which every man loves and every woman enjoys, will be among us and oh, those chickens!

JOLLY JACK TARS WANT HIGHER PAY

The Life of a British Merchant Man Not Exactly One of Luxury—Wages Very Low

Though the regulations forbidding soldiers or sailors in his Majesty's service to combine, there is a movement on foot to organize the British navy into a labor union. The complaint that they are unfairly treated, and many of them believe in a strike, or at least to lay their hands before the Admiralty in a more effective form they will continue to be treated. An examination of the rates that have been made public show that the men have good reason to complain about their treatment. The sailors' wages on all round increase of 20 per cent in wages. It is pointed out in justification of this argument that for fifty years the wages of sailors have remained stationary. About 1850, the pay of an able-bodied seaman was 1s. 7d per day and if he held the substantive rating of trained man he received another penny a day. This is what he receives now. The average wage of the sailors in the British Navy, including all allowances, is something less than $5.50 a week, and the about ten cents a week less than the seaman was allowed three years ago.

There are other grievances besides that of wages. For instance, the sailor is now demanding to know why he should be expected to provide his own kit. In no other branch of the public service are the men supposed to buy their own uniforms; but the sailor is required to do so. Not only do naval men have to buy their own outfits, but they are mulcted by the State of a very large profit in the transaction. Since the price of clothing has advanced in recent years owing to the increased wages of those employed in the clothing trade the sailor has been obliged to pay more for his kit. That is to say, he has to stand his share of raising the wages of weavers and spinners, but has had no increase of his own. One of his bitterest thoughts is that the despised farm who works cheek by jowl is better paid man, and enjoys many of the benefits from which Jack is excluded. Marines have their clothing paid for them. A certain number of them may marry and receive an increased allowance. A sailor is not supposed to marry. In fact he is supposed to be a married man, short time ago fifty or sixty years were shelled from the Channel.

The North Sea, from Portsmouth to Harwich to Rosyth. No attention is paid to the fact that hundreds of the crew had homes along the South coast, which they used to visit on their days off. Their families were ignored, and the sailors will have to pay the expense of moving them to the Firth of Forth or leave them where they are.

When the seaman retires from the navy he is entitled to a pension, but it is very small, indeed. The pension amounts to only one cent a day for each year spent in the service. That is to say, the sailor who had served for 20 years would receive only 20 cents a day. Other grievances relate to the severity of punishments and to the fact that when any seaman is for any reason reduced to the ranks, his case is disposed of summarily by the captain, who is often prosecutor and judge as well. The seaman cannot have the benefit of court-martial.

RAISING LIVE STOCK

Grain Growing Alone is Not Adequate in Southern Manitoba

It takes time to change from growing grain to raising livestock and dairy cattle. But southern Manitoba is being both induced and forced into the change. The crops in the last three years have not been as good as they used to be, and the demand for all kinds of small food products from markets like Winnipeg and from the new settlers in Saskatchewan and Alberta has been such as to prove the profitableness of feeding grain and fodder instead of growing grain alone. The result is that many a station platform is decorated with one-gallon milk cans these days, waiting to be rushed to city dairies or to be consumed by a local creamery or cheese factory. Last year the district between Winnipeg and Morden, which is merely the central portion of Manitoba, marketed 6,472 head of cattle, 2,790 horses, and 10,338 hogs, an increase of nearly twenty per cent. in every department over the previous year. In dairy products the Manitoba farmer last year sold $200,000 more butter than in 1910, and realized over $200,000 more for his work. Creameries produced and sold nearly 400,000 pounds more butter than in 1910, and comparing total receipts for the two years for dairy products, over $1,636,000 was received in 1911, as against $1,373,000 in the previous year. This season will see further increases in these items.

MUST KEEP OUR RAW MATERIAL

Pulpwood Exports are Instance of Enormous Loss That Has Accrued to Canadian Industry

The Department of the Interior, Ottawa, has issued a report on "Pulpwood" in part as follows:

"If the pulpwood exported in 1911 had been reduced to pulp in Canada it would have supplied 68 mills of the average size of those in Canada. Thus one hundred and twenty mills instead of fifty-four would have been operating in Canada, employing Canadian labor and advancing Canadian adian industry. The provincial laws affecting the export of pulpwood within the exporting provinces have changed considerably in 1911. In 1909, pulpwood from private lands in Ontario and from all lands in Quebec and New Brunswick could be shipped to points outside of Canada. In the year, however, the province of Quebec issued more restrictive regulations, which came into force on the 1st of September, 1910, prohibiting the export of unmanufactured wood cut on Crown lands within the province; and in 1911 New Brunswick passed legislation to the same effect, coming into force on the first day of October of that year, too late to affect the 1911 export trade.

Legislation Needed

"The effect of the Quebec legislation is noticeable this year. The export of raw pulpwood from that province was decreased by 142,864 cords, or 18.3 per cent. Its domestic consumption increased by 47,671 cords, or nearly 14 per cent., and three new mills were started in addition to several others under construction. In the other provinces taken together, the export of raw pulpwood increased by 47,662 cords, or 29 per cent.; the domestic consumption was increased by 26,130 cords, or 10.2 per cent.; and one mill less reported. It is evident that this legislation is already having the desired effect in stimulating the growth of the industry. It would also seem to have been effective in stimulating the export of pulpwood from other provinces, and from private lands in the province of Quebec.

"All the provinces are fully alive to the importance of preventing the export of this valuable raw material. So far as it is in their power, they have taken steps to prevent it from being carried off to build up the industries of another country, yet more than half the pulpwood cut in Canada is still carried over the border to supply the pulp mills of the United States. Nearly all of this wood is cut from privately owned land, over which the provinces have no jurisdiction. Only the federal authority, by the imposition of a prohibitive export tax could stop this export.

Loss to Canada

It is interesting to note to what extent provincial industry would have been increased if the pulpwood exported to the United States had been converted into wood-pulp on Canadian soil. The 636,136 cords exported from Quebec would have supplied material for a year to forty-five pulp mills of the average size operating in Quebec. In Ontario, six mills of the average size could have been kept running with the pulp logs exported from that province. The 122,698 cords shipped from the ports of New Brunswick would have supplied ten mills of the average size, if the high production of 1909 be taken as the normal capacity of the mills of the province. More than twice the number of mills operating in the Dominion might have been at work if Canadians had been feeling enough to manufacture their own raw products.

The Height of Meanness

The record for meanness is held by a certain church-warden in the South of England. He owns several cottages, which he lets at 2s. 6d. per week, and he has often threatened to turn the occupants out if they owe a week's rent. One old man, who had been his tenant for many years, was unfortunately taken ill, and was unable to work for some long time.

Eventually he got two weeks in arrears of rent, and when the landlord called as usual, told him that he could not pay anything that morning.

The churchwarden said he was sorry for him. He would go to the vicar and see if he could get a donation from the poor-box, to which the old man replied: "Thank you, sir; it is very kind of you."

Well, I have managed to get you 5s. from the poor-box, he said, on calling the next day.

Thank you sir, was the grateful response.

Where's your rent book? continued the churchwarden, and on its production, he wrote the two weeks' arrears of rent as paid, put the 5s. he had shown the tenant into his own pocket, and, advising him not to get into arrears again, wished him good-morning.

As the Sunday school teacher entered her classroom she saw leaving in great haste a little girl and her still smaller brother.

New Trans-Pacific Steamships

All Trans-Pacific records are expected to be broken when the Canadian Pacific Railway puts into service its two new steamships, the Empress of Russia and the Empress of Asia. The Empress of Russia was launched a couple of weeks ago at the yards of the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering Company at Glasgow, Scotland, and as a result, will be the first of the two new vessels to feel the swells of the Pacific. In the meantime, while the vessel is being completed, much discussion is heard among traffic men as to just what effect the new boats will have on Trans-Pacific shipping. Canadian Pacific officials themselves believe that the introduction of the new boats into the service between Canada and the Orient will mark a new epoch in traffic on the Pacific. Certain it is, however, that whatever other results are felt, all present records for fast voyages between Canada and Japan and China will be considerably lowered. The Empress of Japan at present holds the record for the fastest voyage the Pacific, having made the distance between Vancouver and Yokohama in 10 days, 10 hours, and 4 minutes, and between Vancouver and Hong Kong in 17 days, 10 hours and 16 minutes, inclusive of stops. The Japan however, has only a contracted speed of 18 knots on the measured mile and 16 knots on a sea trip, while the new Empress steamers are designed for a speed of 20 knots per hour. This great advantage in speed will undoubtedly mean a big reduction in the duration of a Trans-Pacific voyage, and in fact, some shipping men are of the opinion that the Empress of Russia will cut almost 24 hours off the Empress of Japan, Vancouver-Yokohama.

ONLY ONE WAY TO CURE RHEUMATISM

It Must Be Treated Through the Blood and the Poisonous Acid Driven Out

The twinges and tortures of rheumatism are not due to cold, damp weather as so many persons suppose. Rheumatism comes from poisonous acid in the blood. This is a medical truth which every sufferer should realize. There is only one way to cure rheumatism—it must be treated through the blood. All the liniments and rubbing and so-called electric treatment in the world will not cure rheumatism, and the sufferer who tries them is not only wasting money, but is allowing the trouble to become more deep-rooted in the system and harder to cure when the proper remedy is tried. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make the new, rich blood of health, and in this way drive out the poisonous acid which causes rheumatism. Thousands of instances of cures might be given, among which is the following one. Mrs. G. R. Dulmage, Cherry Valley, Ont., says: "I was attacked with rheumatism which gradually grew worse, until I was confined to my bed. For about two weeks I had to be shifted and turned in bed as I was utterly unable to help myself. I was under the doctor's care and so far recovered that I was able to get up and move about, but the trouble still remained in my system. If I put my hands in cold water, or if I went out in the evening or in damp weather the trouble would return, and for four years I thus suffered from rheumatism, until I began to think it could not be driven from my system. Finally I gave up all other medicine and began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using them for a couple of months I was completely cured and have not had a twinge of rheumatism since. I can recommend the Pills to anyone suffering from this trouble."

These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

In England the first dock was constructed at Liverpool in 1708.

When going away from home, or at any change of habitat, he is a wise man who numbers among his belongings a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellong's Dysentery Cordial. Change of food and water in some strange place where there are no doctors may bring on an attack of dysentery. He then has a standard remedy at hand with which to cope with the disorder, and forearmed he can successfully fight the ailment and subdue it.

Will you be one of the 108 farmers who will receive our Prize Contest checks?

THERE will be twelve cash prizes in each of the nine provinces (108 in all) in the 1912 Prize Contest for Canadian Farmers. The 1911 Contest was so successful in awakening interest in the use of Concrete on the farm, that a second contest, in which three times as many prizes are offered, was decided upon for this year. The Contest this year is divided into three classes, "A," "B," and "C," and there will be four prizes in each class. (First prize, $50; Second prize, $25; Third prize, $15; Fourth prize, $10.) Thus there are three $50 Prizes, three $25 Prizes, three $15 prizes, and three $10 Prizes, for each province.

DESCRIPTION OF CLASSES

In Each Class there will be First, Second, Third and Fourth Prizes ($50, $25, $15, and $10) for Each Province.

CLASS "A"—Prizes to be awarded to the four farmers in each province who use most "Canada" Cement on their farms in the year 1912.

CLASS "B"—Prizes to be awarded to the four farmers in each province who send photographs of the best concrete work done with "Canada" Cement on their farms in 1912.

CLASS "C"—Prizes to be awarded to the four farmers in each province who send in the best description, telling how any piece of concrete work was done with "Canada" Cement. (Entries for this prize must be accompanied by photographs of the work.)

Don't think that you must use a large quantity of cement in order to win a prize. The quantity of cement used does not count in Classes "B" and "C." Many of last year's prize winners used very little cement.

When you enter the Contest, you have a chance to win a cash prize of $50 as well as the certainty that you will add a permanent improvement to your farm. If you haven't a copy, be sure and ask for our book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete." It will not only suggest many improvements that you can use in entering the Contest, but will tell you all about the use of concrete on the farm.

Just write your name and address on the attached coupon, or use a postal card, and we will send full particulars of the Prize Contest and a copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete" to you absolutely free.

SHAW'S SCHOOLS

The Central Business College, Toronto, with Four City Branch Schools.—The Central Telegraph and Railroad School and The Shaw Correspondence School, are now commonly known as "Shaw's Schools." In these schools a great work is being done in training young people for business pursuits and for earning good salaries. The annual curriculum is interesting and is mailed free on sending request to W. H. Shaw, President, Toronto, Ont.

A West Virginia judge, arraigned a man for stealing a horse, denounced him as a persistent law-breaker, and then sentenced him to ten years' hard labor in the State prison.

Have you anything to say? he asked when he was through.

No, said the sentenced one, except that it strikes me you are pretty darned liberal with other people's time.

WHAT'S AT THE BOTTOM OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

There are many causes at the bottom of an attack of kidney trouble—over-eating, over-drinking, heavy colds, these and other causes often cause illnesses such as kidney trouble, gall-stones, kidney-stones, gravel, lumbago. But no matter what is at the bottom of the disease, there is now a sure and safe cure, one that acts quickly and without fail. That remedy is SANOL, which is already well-known to the medical profession of Canada as well as to thousands of sufferers from the disease named above. One Winnipeg lady who is well and widely known, was cured of gallstones by SANOL after suffering for 12 years. So grateful was she, that she has sent to us a large number of people to be relieved of similar complaints. We do not care where the reader of this paragraph resides, we can give him or her names and addresses of people in his own town and locality who have been cured by SANOL. We will also give the name and address of the lady referred to, whose complaint had troubled her for such a long period, and who is now completely cured. SANOL is manufactured only by the SANOL MANUFACTURING COMPANY OF CANADA, LTD., 977 Main Street, Winnipeg. For sale by all druggists or direct from the manufacturers at $1.50 per bottle.

The New Rural Municipal Act.

makes ample provision whereby they may protect themselves.

In some localities where the existing rate of taxation is quite low, it might be a very good investment for the Municipal organization to raise the rate of taxation in order that they might get more improvements. It might also be very good business for certain Municipalities to issue debentures and borrow money. The borrowing of money required need not place such a heavy burden on the Municipality as would probably appear to some. For example, take a Municipality where the land is valued at $10 per acre and suppose the sum of $20,000 is borrowed. This would place an indebtedness of less than 10c per acre on each acre of land in the Municipality, less than $18 per quarter section, and there would be a period of twenty years at least in which to repay this amount, and the Municipality is prohibited from paying a higher rate of interest than 6 per cent. This being the case, $20,000 would not be a very heavy burden for the Municipality, even making allowance for considerable land not subject to assessment. $20,000 would in many Municipalities put the roads in very good shape, and it would enable the improvements required to be made immediately, instead of taking quite a number of years by means of the current revenue. Even debentures of much larger amounts would not impose a very heavy burden on the Municipality and might easily be a very good investment. For example $50,000 would make provision for a great deal of permanent improvements and yet it would not place a debt on the Municipality of more than 25c per acre or $40 per quarter section, with at least twenty years in which to repay it. In many cases the ratepayers would be amply repaid by the time saved in going to and from market on account of the improvements made. If for instance a farmer was able to make three trips to town to do the work that now requires five the expenses saved would soon meet any increase in taxation that would arise from an increase in rate, or from borrowing an amount such as mentioned above. In dealing with this matter it might be pointed out that the provisions of the Act allowing a debt to be incurred
